Early Childhood Resources

Early intervention can be the key to future success. Compiled 2 February 2007 by ask.

For Families

Is your child progressing typically? Here are some Checklists to measure from the US Dept. of Education:

Birth to 36 months

Three- and Four-years-old

Kindergarten age

What Families Can Do www.ed.gov/inits/americanreads/families\_cando.html which includes specifics like reading aloud and testing hearing, step by step www.ed.gov/inits/americanreads/families\_actionsteps.html

Websites to Play and Learn

The Literacy Center Education Network www.literacycenter.net/lessonview\_en.htm

Number Sense, Colors, Shapes, the Alphabet, basic Vocabulary. Fantastic!

Note: All activities here require Flash Player plug-in. You can download and install Flash Player automatically from here.

A Colorado family's Starfall www.starfall.com

From letter recognition games, calendar games, number games and printable worksheets, too.

Story Place, the Children's Digital Library www.storyplace.org/

In English and Spanish, kids can listen, read, and play with stories about shapes and colors.

For Teachers

The Early Childhood Behavior Intervention Manual by Stephen B. McCarney
